Great Falls News

Great Falls, S. C., Dec. 3.—A Union Thanksgiving service was held in the Baptist church Thursday evening. Dr. Wall, as host, welcomed the other denominations, made all announcements and introduced Rev. George B. Thompson, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who preached the Thanksgiving sermon. Prayers were offered by Rev. J. E. Brown, of the Methodist church, and H. A. Tibbs, layman of the Baptist church. Special music was rendered by a choir composed of members of the three churches.

There was a public exhibit of the work of the primary grades of the Great Falls schools Thursday in the hall of the graded school building. The exhibit included busy work, cutouts, drawing, number work and written exercises from the first through the fifth grades, and each department displayed wonderful talent and training for the "tiny tots." One exhibit that attracted special interest was that of one section of the third grade, which pictured the past, present and future history of Great Falls. A series of five pictures, each depicting a different scene, were shown, and the children, by the second grades, picturing the Pilgrim Fathers and the Mayflower also attracted much interest.

Mrs. R. M. Mann, member of the Graded School faculty, deftly entertained the teachers of the grammar grades at her home on Calhoun Street Thursday afternoon from four to six o'clock. A nut concert was enjoyed. Mrs. Mann served a delicious salad course. Those present were Misses Maude Baldwin, Lucile Bull, Nell Rambo, Louise Harrison, Mary Anderson, Christine Fowler, Katie Davidson and Mrs. Dill.

Miss Claudia Fisher, of Sumter, S. C., arrived in Great Falls December 1st, to begin her work as assistant to the Pastor of the Presbyterian church. Miss Fisher is peculiarly fitted for the work of the church, having been both by training and personality, and Great Falls is to be congratulated upon having her services.

Miss Anna Bailey, an "A. M. Forest" Davis was married Wednesday evening at 6:30 at the Baptist parsonage, by Rev. W. H. Hill. Mrs. Davis is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bailey, and is a young lady of pleasing personality. Mr. Davis is a young man of good habits and character. Both the bride and groom have many friends who will be interested to learn of their marriage. They will make their home in Great Falls.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 4.

RICHBURG NEWS.

Richburg, Nov. 30th.—Mr. and Mrs. Jess Kilgore, of Winesboro, have moved to Richburg. They are glad to welcome them here. They live in the Brennan house. Mrs. W. M. Melton and Miss Clara Kilgore, and their children who are now residents of her town, to whom we give welcome as permanent dwellers in our "Burg." It will be remembered that Mrs. Melton and Miss Clara Kilgore have taught here for several years now.

The Chester Sanatorium has three patients from east-Chester, each appendicitis cases. Rev. B. H. Franklin, Mrs. R. J. Bishop, and William B. Barnes to all of whom we wish a speedy recovery. Speaking of school talks, Rev. R. Roy Brown made one here on "Foot-prints on the Sand." It was very different from most talks that he had the shoes and the sand there, and used Longfellow's Psalm of Praise.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McWaters and Corral, of Clover, were visitors to S. J. McCrory's and relatives here this Thanksgiving. There are four little ones who that have come to the community. Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gladden, on October 16th; a fine little son, Steven Allen.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. S. J. McCrory a fine little daughter, Elizabeth Pauline, October 15th. Born to Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Cauthen, a fine little daughter, Mary Elizabeth, on November 15th.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Blackmon, a fine little son, Benjamin, October 13th. Mrs. W. C. Simpson and Jas. Leona, Mrs. F. M. Hickin, and visitors to their sister, Mrs. Emma Connelley, Columbia, and will return home on Monday.

The Thanksgiving dinner at Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Simpson were: Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Sanders, R. H. Westbrook and two sons, Mr. R. H. and Miss Nannie Kilgore.

Rev. R. Roy Brown and Betty took a Liberty Hill trip a couple of weeks ago to visit relatives. The Richburg Lodge No. 83, elected for its officers for the ensuing year the following: Dr. S. Jordan, W. M.; Joe Sayre, S. W.; W. J. Ross, J. W.; Frank K. Patrick, Treas.; R. Roy Brown, Sec'y.; J. H. Clawson, Tiler.

And the Lodge is receiving nine new members into the fraternity. The good roads on the Richburg-Cedar Lawn highway has a yet unfinished job beginning at the old Cedar Sheds Factory site; but the force is steadily working from the other end, i. e. from Fort Lawn to the river.

Miss Analee McGrorey, of Clover, is here visiting her sister and father, Mr. S. J. and Miss Juliet McGrorey. The total number of bales ginned by the Peoples' Gin Co., is to date 1427 which makes a most favorable comparison with last year, and 335 bales at Jordan's.

Bascomville. Thanksgiving services at both the Presbyterian church and Methodist church, morning and evening each, at which both congregations and pastors participated. The Junior had a very nice program at the Methodist church at the Thanksgiving evening service.

Rev. W. F. Harris and his wife are the new occupants of the Methodist parsonage, who have been welcomed and welcomed. We are sorry to note the death of Mr. A. E. Cleveland's sister, Mrs. J. H. James, of Grier, and extend our sympathy. The Varnum brothers have opened a meat market here.

We have a new Filling Station, the Melton brothers proprietors. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Blackmon, of Hendersonville, N. C., have moved to Chester. They were visitors here this week at Mrs. Lee's house.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Dye spent Thanksgiving with Mr. J. W. Kestler at Milford. The Baseball game with the Hawks Springs comes off at Oak Hall, December 7th and an entertainment that night in the auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson and family, of Lenoirville, have moved to Wilson's Grove near Richburg. Miss Katherine Steele is teaching at Wilson's Grove school this term.

Miss Lizzie Melton is indisposed with a terrible cold. The Masonic Banquet is scheduled for December 27th, 1 o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTICE. Attention is hereby called to the fact that provision is made for the shooting of fireworks in the City of Chester on Christmas and Christmas eve. The ordinance states that the fireworks must be shot in private property, and not on the streets of the city. The people are asked to comply strictly with this ordinance. The shooting of fireworks will also be allowed on New Year's day but must be shot on private property, too.

Attention is also called to the fact that many citizens are throwing banana-peelings, and other trash on the streets and sidewalks. This is in violation of ordinances and the public is asked to discontinue the practice. We want a clean town and are for the cooperation of the public.
